Carols By Candlelight: Sing-alongs, Silent Night/ White Christmas/Welcome Christmas
1. Silent Night
Silent night, Holy Night. All is calm, all is bright. Round yon Virgin mother and child; holy infant so tender and mild; sleep in heavenly peace. Sleep in heavenly peace.

2. White Christmas
I’m dreaming of a white Christmas just like the ones I used to know; where the treetops glisten and children listen to hear sleigh bells in the snow. I’m dreaming of a white Christmas with every Christmas card I write. May your days be merry and bright; and may all your Christmases be white!

3. Welcome Christmas
Fah who foraze! Dah who doraze! Welcome Christmas come this way. Fah who foraze! Dah who doraze! Welcome Christmas, Christmas day! 17. Welcome, welcome Fah who rah mus! Welcome welcome Day who dahmus! Christmas day is in our grasp so long as we have hands to clasp! 26. Fah who foraze! Dah who doraze! Welcome Christmas, come this way. Fah who foraze! Dah who doraze! Welcome Christmas, Christmas day! Welcome Christmas, Christmas day!

All Students fall Asleep/ Evil villains appear as they are named on the balcony

Narrator 1: Every Who down in Who-ville liked Christmas a lot.

Narrator 2: Twas the night before Christmas when all through the house not a creature was stirring not even a mouse.

Narrator 3: Every Who down in Whoeville had hung up their mistletoe wreath and were nestled, all snug in their beds while visions of sugarplums danced in their heads.

Narrator 2: When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter, but all were asleep so no Who knew what was the matter. When what to the wondering eye should appear?

Narrator 4: Not a sleigh and 8 tiny reindeer but Lucy, the Abominable Snowman, the evil magician, the Grinch and his dog dressed up like a deer.
K-4 Choir: Hip Hop Reindeer
1. Hip hop reindeer pullin’ Santa’s sleigh, now. Hip hop reindeer dancin’ on the roof. Hip hop reindeer comin’ Christmas day, now. Hear the clatter of every hoof.

If you take some time to rap in rhyme all around the Christmas tree! You can have a happy holiday that’s phat; P H A T! That’s right! Uh-huh! Everybody is in the groove.

Narrator 1: The moon on the breast of the new fallen snow gave a luster of midday to objects below.

Narrator 3: The Grinch was furry, green and large, obviously the villain in charge. Together they huddled and mumbled and plotted

Narrator 2: and finally declared, each one and all,

Lucy, Snowman, Magician, Grinch: We must stop this whole thing, all they do is sing, sing and sing. Together we will stop this Christmas from coming.

Narrator 2: They snuck into town like thieves in the night, and nary a sole lingered in sight. All the windows were dark.

Narrator 1: Quiet snow filled the air. All the Whos were all dreaming sweet dreams without care.

Narrator 4: They came to the first little house on the square.

Grinch: This is stop number one. (hissing)

Lucy: Let’s sneak inside with these empty bags in our fists.

Evil Magician: But be very quiet, Whos can be quite vicious.

Snowman: But stealing their stuff is all so delicious.

Evil Magician: But wait, let’s sprinkle magic dust in the air, that way they’ll continue to sleep without care.
Grinch: These stockings are the first things to go!

Narrator 4: They slithered and slunk, with smiles most unpleasant, around the whole room and took every present.

Narrator 3: Pop guns and bicycles! Roller skates and Drums.

Narrator 1: Checkerboards, Tricycles, popcorn and plums. They stuffed them in bags and very nimbly, stuffed all the bags, one by one, up the chimbley!

Narrator 2: Then they slunk to the icebox.

Lucy: Let's take the Who's feast.

Snowman: the Who pudding and roast beast.

Evil Magician: Let's take the last can of Who-hash!

Grinch: and now we'll steal their tree.

Narrator 1: They grabbed the tree and started to shove when they heard the small sound like the coo of a dove.

Narrator 3: They turned around fast and saw a small Who. Little Cindy-Lou Who, who was not more than two.

Cindy Lou Who: Santy Claus why, why are you taking our Christmas tree? Why?

Narrator 2: But you know that old Grinch was so smart and so slick. He thought up a lie, and he thought it up quick!

Grinch: Why my sweet little tot, there's a light on this tree that won't light on one side. So I'm taking it home to my workshop my dear.

Lucy: We'll fix it up there.

Snowman: Then we'll bring it back here.

Narrator 4: He patted her head, got her a drink and sent her to bed.

Narrator 2: The last thing they took was a log on the fire.

Narrator 3: They did the same thing to the other Whos' houses, leaving crumbs much too small for the other Whos' mouses!

5th Grade Band Selections:
Narrator 2: It was quarter past dawn all the Whos still a-bed, all the Whos still a-snooze, but Cindy Lou Who just couldn't sleep, stared at the ceiling and started to weep.

Cindy Lou Who: Was that the real Santy Claus? Santy's usually not furry and green. And those elves were not like elves that I've ever seen. All our presents are gone and so is our food, so I better find friends who can help me get out of this terrible mood.

Narrator 3: So Cindy Lou Who gathered her friends; Frosty, Rudolph, Charlie Brown and Snoopy too.

K-3 Choir: Frosty & Friends
7 Thumpety thump thump, thumpety thump! Here comes Frosty the Snow Man! 11 Thumpety thump thump, thumpety thump! Say, “hello to Rudolph, the rednosed reindeer.
16 Thumpety thump thump, thumpety thump! You’ll just have to wait for Santa Claus!
21 Frosty the Snow Man was a jolly, happy soul with a corn cob pipe and a button nose and two eyes made out of coal. Frosty the Snow Man is a fairy tale, they say; he was made of snow but the children know how he came to life one day. There must have been some magic in that old silk hat they found for when they placed it on his head he began to dance around. Frosty the Snow Man was alive as he could be, and the children say he could laugh and play just the same as you and me.
53 You know Dasher and Dancer and Prancer and Vixen, Comet and Cupid and Donner and Blitzen; but do you recall the most famous reindeer of all? 63 Rudolph, the rednosed reindeer had a very shiny nose, and if you ever saw it, you would even say it glows. All of the other reindeer used to laugh and call him names. They never let poor Rudolph join in any reindeer Games.
79 Then one foggy Christmas Eve Santa came to say, “Rudolph, with your nose so bright, won’t you guide my sleigh tonight?” Than all the reindeer loved him as they shouted out with glee, “Rudolph, the rednosed reindeer you’ll go down in history. You’ll go down in history.”
103 Here comes Santa Claus! Here comes Santa Claus right down Santa Claus Lane! Vixen and Blitzen and all his reindeer are pulling on the rein. Bells are ringing, children singing, all is merry and bright, hang your stockings and say your prayers, “cause Santa Claus comes tonight.
103 V2: Here comes Santa Claus! Here comes Santa Claus right down Santa Claus Lane! He’s got a bag that is filled with toys for the boys and girls again. 111 Hear those sleighbells jingle jangle what a beautiful sight. Jump in bed, cover up your head, ‘cause Santa Claus comes tonight.
119 Thumpety, thump, thump, thumpety, thump! Frosty! Rudolph! Santa Claus! Merry Christmas to all.

Charlie Brown: All the presents are gone, all the songs have been sung, there isn’t a scrap left for the Christmas feast. What shall we do?

Rudolph: Perhaps we should consider giving the Grinch and his Scrooge Posse a red nose, then when they’re sneaking around town we’ll see their nose glows.

Frosty: Perhaps they could all be turned into snow, since their hearts are as cold as lumps of black coal.
Charlie Brown: Then the sun could appear and they’d all disappear.

Narrator 1: The 3 of them jumped for joy and cheered, but Cindy just sat, thought and peered.

Narrator 2: And she sat and thought and peered until her brain started to throb, then she jumped up and said out loud,

Cindy Lou Who: I've got it, I know just what we should do. Gather around friends, and I’ll share it with you.

6th Grade Band Selections (2)

Narrator 3: Together they gathered up scraps left on the ground and assembled the new gifts without making a sound.

Narrator 4: The gifts they created were beyond special, priceless and rare.

Narrator 1: Gifts very precious presented with care. (New Gifts Are Given to Audience Members)

4th-6th Grade Choir: As Long as There's a Christmas

5 There is more to this time of year than sleighbells and holly, mistletoe and snow. Those things will come and go. 16 Don’t look inside a stocking. Don’t look under the tree. The one thing we’re looking for is something we can’t see. Far more precious than silver and more splendid than gold, this is something to treasure, but it’s something we can’t hold. 33 As long as there’s Christmas, I truly believe that hope is the greatest of the gifts we’ll receive, we’ll receive. 43 As we all pray together, it’s a time to rejoice. And though we may look different, we’ll all sing with one voice, one voice.

54 As long as there’s Christmas, I truly believe that hope is the greatest of the gifts we’ll receive. 62 As long as there’s Christmas, we’ll all be just fine. A star shines above us lighting your way and mine. Oh, light my way, light my way.

79 As long as there’s Christmas, I truly believe that hope is the greatest of the gifts we’ll receive. As long as our guiding star shines above, there’ll always be Christmas. So there always will be a time when the world is filled with peace and love. 98 Oo, oo.

Narrator 1: And when they had finished they returned to their homes

Narrator 4: and quietly waited until they heard a sound rising over the snow.

Narrator 2: It started out low and it started to grow. This sound sounded merry, very merry!

Narrator 3: It was the sound of Christmas glee, like children finding their presents under their tree.
4-6th Grade Choir: Charlie Brown Christmas

37 Hark the herald angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King. Peace on earth and mercy mild. God and sinner reconciled.” 45 Joyful all ye nations rise; join the triumph of the skies; with angelic hosts proclaim, “Christ is born in Bethlehem!” Hark! The herald angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King!”

62 Christmas time is here, happiness and cheer. Fun for all that children call their fav’rite time of year. Snowflakes in the air, carols ev’rywhere, olden times and ancient rhymes of love and dreams to share. Sleighbells in the air, beauty ev’rywhere. Yuletide by the fireside and joyful mem’ries there. Christmas time is here. (Pt 2 echo) We’ll be drawing near. (pt 2 echo)

O that we could always see such spirit through the year. Oh that we could always see such spirit through the year.

Narrator 1: The villains stood puzzling ice cold in the snow.

Grinch: Christmas came without ribbons. How can this be so?

Lucy: It came without tags.

Magician: It came without packages, boxes or bags!

Snowman: Maybe Christmas doesn’t come from a store.

Grinch/Lucy/Magician/Snowman: Maybe Christmas, perhaps, means much more!

Cindy Lou Who: Christmas is something you feel in your soul.

Charlie Brown: You give it away and watch it grow.

Frosty: It’s something not icy, or frosty or cold.

Rudolph: It’s something glowing inside that never grows old.

(Audience opens gifts and holds up the gift.)
Narrator 2: The first gift is the gift of great hope, hope that shines in the darkest of nights.

Narrator 1: The second gift is the gift of world peace.

Narrator 4: Peace that makes all conflicts cease.

Narrator 3: And the last gift is the finest one of all, the love of family and friends

Charlie Brown: So wherever you roam, you're never alone.

Frosty: Always take that love with you.

Rudolph: That kind of love never ends.

Cindy Lu Who: The gifts of great hope, world peace and love are the gifts we present to you, our family and friends.

K-6 Choir: The Grinch Arr. By Andy Beck
